

Planning for your new year

It's almost that time again—the start of a new year. That means it's also time to start planning ahead. To help you stay healthy—and make it as easy as possible—we've provided some handy tips. After all, we're here to help make sure you don't miss a single dose in the new year.

Top tips for hassle-free refills

Your pharmacy

Your doctor

Your plan

- Create an alliancerxwp.com account to manage your prescriptions
- Check on medication refills
- Ask if prior authorizations are required or need updating
- Submit new insurance information (if needed)
- Update financial assistance or copay information (if required)

- Contact your doctor about prescription refills
- Schedule an appointment for new or existing medication (if required)
- Discuss any medication concerns with your doctor
- Verify your doctor has AllianceRx Walgreens Prime as your pharmacy of record

- Check if your medication coverage has changed
- Verify your copay costs
- Contact your health plan provider with any questions